

Exclusive Service for EMN Members

Jackson Hogg is a leading specialist recruitment and outsourced people services partner focusing on Science, Technology, Engineering and Manufacturing industries, internationally. Our team offers high quality, innovative recruitment and people services solutions to organisations seeking to find, train and retain exceptional talent across all functions.

Your membership gives you access to the following:

- Free HR health check to help you identify any areas of compliance which need attention. We will also recommend some initiatives to support your business plan and achievement of your strategic goals.

- Free recruitment consultancy session to offer you some useful insights and guidance and support your direct recruitment, along with how to choose a recruitment partner who can enable you to attract the best talent.

- Two seminars per year on topics decided by members, related to recruitment, HR or people in organisations.