Sexual harassment and the dangers of banter

½ day £125+vat | 21st November - am

With a focus on the preventative duty around sexual harassment and other forms of discrimination this workshop gives you practical tools and tips to protect yourself from discrimination claims

Delivering 121s with impact

½ day £125+vat | 26th November - am

In this half day, action-based workshop, we will look at why 121s are a key enabler of performance and how to deliver them with impact. If you want to optimise performance, engagement, and success this is a must for managers.

Making probation periods count

½ day £125+vat | 5th December - am

In this half day, action-based workshop, we will help you ensure that probation works for you and your employees. We will share the key enablers of success and how to manage and measure them in order to support your employees.

Inclusion and mental health

½ day £125+vat | 23rd January - am

In this half day, action-based workshop, we will focus on how to build a team which is inclusive, and which supports the team to have good mental health. We will talk about how to have tricky conversations around this topic.

Stepping into management

1 day £250+vat (includes lunch) | 12th February

This one-day course is focused on tackling one of the biggest pitfalls most businesses fall into; promoting your employees into management without developing the skills of management to enable success. This course will help newly appointed managers (or those who have not been trained) to understand the role, how to step up within a team you have worked in and how to enable success in the team.
